

West Milford

CAROLINE GERRI 838-3705

Kelly Ballard of Oak Ridge was eight years old on July 2 and celebrated with a home party, given by her parents, Rosemary and Donald. Her guests were Jeanne and Joey Schmidt, Kathleen Banta, Lee Ann Wolak, Janet Maglio, Lisa Carbone, Jill Rufner, Debbie Czochanski, uncle Michael Centanni, great aunt Etta Schwemmer, grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Michael Centanni and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ballard, her great grandmother Mae Ballard, godparents Lynn and Richard Brust, the Schutenhelms, the Squartinos, the Rengas, and Carmen Centanni.

Brian Gerri celebrated his seventh birthday (July 4) with a rainy day barbecue on July 3. Besides his sisters Kristen and Vanessa, his guests were (all from New York) grandmother Marianne Gerri, uncle Tony Accurso, aunt Janet and uncle Rick Forte, cousin Diana Forte, cousins Robert and Christine Gerri and their children Evamarie and Michael, and cousins James and Arlene Gerri and their sons John and Jaimo.

Also celebrating July 4 birthdays were Jimmy Niedzwiecki of High Crest Drive, and Frankie Ciminello, 7, of Navajo Trail.

Celebrating their 10th wedding anniversary on July 21 were Tony and Cloe Lupo.

The Milford Manor Nursing Home needs volunteers, both during the week and on weekends. Anyone who could spare some time may call and ask for the activities director.

Susan Shoemaker took second place in the recently held Dope Open Tennis Tournament at the Braidburn Club in Florham Park. The benefit tournament was for drug rehabilitation and Shoemaker's award was in the age 14 and under category.

The Bouloucons of High Crest Drive welcomed relatives from Galt, Ontario, which is south of Toronto, for a recent week's visit. Marina (Pete Bouloucon's sister) and Gord Fairfield and their sons Sean, Kurt, and Brent were the visitors.

Madeline and Richard Neitz and their children Michael, Ricky, and Jennifer have moved here from York, Penn. Madeline is originally from Packanack Lake and Richard, from Oak Ridge.

The bazaar workers of the High Crest Lake Women's Club met last Thursday at the home of Linda Neumann on High Crest Drive. The club is to participate on Sept. 22 at the Charity Crafts Bazaar at the Bergen Mall. Sue Smilie or Linda Neumann are in charge. Newcomers and new ideas are welcome.

His neighbors and pals wish Mark Rinschler a quick recovery from his recent bicycling accident.

The residents of Northwood Drive held their third annual summer block party on July 8 on the lawn of Dave and Joan Clutton. Coordinator for the event was Leone Wing.

Trudy and George Colflesh recently moved to West Milford from Miami, Fla., with their two sons Christopher, 12, and Michael, 17. George is Boy Scout Executive of the Passaic Valley Council.

Joel Neumann of Northwood Drive has been busy touring Virginia with his cousins Connie and George Neumann from Saddle Brook.

Recent recipients of the High Crest Lake Woman's Club's scholarships for highest academic achievement at High Crest Lake are Dennis Cronk and Julie Drish.

Tom and Claire Cortese, who moved from here to Monroe, La., a few years ago are now on their way to East Hampton, Mass.

John and Dottie Rudy, who moved to Ridgewood a while back, are now relocating to Boca Raton, Fla.

The High Crest Lake Woman's Club is sponsoring a community food drive through July 23 to help replenish dwindling emergency food supplies for the Passaic County Community Action Council, which aids our county's residents with needed non-perishable food supplies.